Problems with the IRS?

Citizens who are low-income and cannot afford professional tax assistance may qualify for help from the Local Taxpayer Advocate Service (LTA). The LTA service can help determine if a taxpayer meets the income guidelines and other eligibility criteria.

The LTA offers free, independent and confidential assistance:

- To taxpayers unable to resolve tax problems
- Individuals experiencing a hardship, and,
- In identifying issues that compromise taxpayer rights, increases taxpayer burden or causes problems for the taxpayer
